

Human Rights and Economic Justice - Mexico 2013 Grants List

Centro de los Derechos del Migrante, Inc. (Two Year Grant) $70,000

General Support. CDM is a transnational migrant workers' rights organization with offices on both sides of the Mexico-US border. CDM supports Mexico-based migrant workers to defend and protect their rights as they move between their home communities in Mexico and their workplaces in the US. Through Outreach, Education and Leadership Development; Intake, Evaluation and Referral; Direct Representation; and Policy Advocacy, CDM addresses the barriers that prevent migrants from exercising their rights.

EDGE Funders Alliance (One Year Grant) $15,000

General Support. The mission of EDGE Funders is to organize within philanthropy to address the systemic nature of the social, economic and ecological crises threatening the future of our planet. EDGE Funders is for funders committed to supporting struggles for more equity and justice in the world as it is, while also supporting work towards deeper, transformative change.

International Human Rights Funders Group Proteus Fund $1,500

2013 Membership Dues. The International Human Rights Funders Group is a global network of donors and grantmakers committed to advancing human rights around the world through effective philanthropy.

Just Associates Inc (One Year Grant) $17,700

Defending Defenders: Strengthening the Backbone of Human & Labor Rights Movements in Mexico. JASS is dedicated to strengthening the voice, visibility and collective organizing power of women to create a just, sustainable world for all. Our feminist movement-building and popular education strategies combine innovative learning, organizing, communications, and action to equip and energize activists, expand alliances, and mobilize women's movements for greater political influence and to ensure the safety of activists in an increasingly risky world.

Popular Education Research Group (One Year Grant) $35,000

Building Strategies and Alliances to Strengthen Workers' Rights In Global Supply Chains: An Americas Project . MSN is requesting support for our work in Mexico and to facilitate linkages between women's and labour rights groups in Central America and Mexico.

Project of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (Two Year Grant) $70,000

Sponsored by Fund for Global Human Rights

Seeking for economic and social justice in a global economy. ProDESC's project seeks to address systematic violations of economic, social and cultural rights perpetrated by the State and transnational corporations. We aim to empower communities and workers to ensure corporate accountability, build innovative transnational strategies among labor rights activists and ensure the safety and protection of labor rights defenders at risk.

Human Rights and Economic Justice - Mexico
2013 Grants List

Sociedad Mexicana Pro Derechos de la Mujer, A.C. (One Year Grant) $35,000

Strengthening Semillas' Labor Rights Program. In collaboration with the General Service Foundation, Semillas continues to strengthen its long-standing labor rights program with the goal of advancing the women's labor rights agenda for female maquila workers in Mexico. This specific project includes supporting women's labor rights organizations in Mexico in the construction of a national labor rights agenda and the implementation of a labor rights campaign which has been developed by women's labor rights organizations in Central America.

UE Research and Education Fund (One Year Grant) $15,000

Support for CETLAC's Work in the States of Chihuahua and Nuevo Leon. This project will support legal counsel, training and organizing support for women and men workers in their workplaces and communities in the States of Chihuahua and Nuevo Leon, through CETLAC offices in Ciudad Juárez, Chihuahua and Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, with gender equity operating as a transversal axis for this work.